2012-2013 Teaching Fellowship Application

Thank you for your interest in the Nanubhai Education Foundation Teaching Fellowship Program. We will select approximately three to six full time teachers to spend one year teaching English, coaching Indian teachers who have recently graduated with a Bachelors or Masters, and leading professional development workshops. The Fellows will be situated at one of two locations in Gujarat, India from June 2012 through early April 2013. We will provide education training, mentorship, full room and board, and a living stipend. The Fellows will work closely with the school's principal and other NEF full-time staff. Our program does not discriminate on the basis of ethnicity, national origin, gender or age.

You can learn more about the Nanubhai Education Foundation and the experiences of our previous year's interns and Fellows at www.nanubhai.org.

To apply please complete the questions below, attach a copy of your current resume, and email your application to apply@nanubhai.org by January 8, 2012. Applicants with a Master's in Education, Teaching Certificate and/or Professional Development experience are highly encouraged to apply. Any questions may also be directed to the above email address.
